THE ISAAC FAMILY HISTORY

The idea of compiling a family history originated with grandfather John Isaac, who kept notes and records, which were lost at the time of his death. Nathaniel Morris also had more or less of a record, but died without preparing anything complete.

In 1915 my aunt Esther Palmer and cousin Edna Machado made a partial list of names, addresses and other data, on which this history is based. Last fall I sent out the first circulars, and the present incomplete and far from imposing history is the result. Some members have been omitted entirely and others barely mentioned, owing to entire lack of reliable information concerning them.

I recommend that all members send me reports of inaccuracies and supply further information so that it can be placed on file and incorporated in any future edition of this work.

I suggest that each year a report of corrections additions, births, marriages, graduations, deaths, and other interesting data of all kinds, be filed, so as to keep the information up to date. This could also be published at very small expense, and furnished to all members who care to pay for it.

Owing to the desire to get this book out so early, all reports on the descendants of Maurice Isaac, David (or Edward) Isaac and Jane Isaac, the brothers and sister of grandfather John Isaac, are omitted from this volume. I am endeavoring to collect all this information, which will then be published in the same form as this volume, and at the same price, $1.00 per volume. The same holds true for the descendants of Edward Richards and Catharine Ellis, other than the descendants of Esther Richards Isaac. I shall announce the publication of these histories when they are ready to go to "press", so as to determine how many to print.

I sincerely hope that no serious errors have crept into this book, and have done my best to avoid them. I wish to acknowledge my obligation to all members of the family for their assistance and encouragement.
